TITLE AND ABSTRACT

Title
Normative Problems in Settlement of Waste Disputes in Court According to Law Number 18 of 2008 concerning Waste Management

Abstract
Garbage is something that will always grow along with the rate of population growth. If waste is not managed properly, it will become a problem that often leads to disputes. Dispute resolution regarding waste management is currently regulated in Law Number 18 of 2008 concerning Waste Management, but the norms governing it are still unclear. This research is a type of normative research that is carried out using a statutory approach. The
